A Violet Luncheon.

Mrs. Grace Waterhouse gave a violet lunch on Tuesday in honor of Miss Jessie Robertson of Santa Rosa, California. The other guests were Miss Graydon, Miss Edith Alexander of Oakland, Misses Mary and Agnes Alexander, Miss Belle Dickey, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. Albert Waterhouse. Among the decorations were small pots of growing violets in full bloom at each plate and violet color ruled throughout. Miss Robertson has spent several months in the Islands most of the time visiting her uncle, G. B. Robertson, the editor of the Maui News. She has made a host of friends who regret her early return to California.

Rally of Young People.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors have an excellent program for this evening at 7:30, and expect a full hall. Mr. Muckley will give a temperance talk, and Mr. Westervelt has consented to show some choice colored views of the Orient, with his stereopticon.
The Leialani Quintet Club will furnish string music, and under Mrs. Yandley's direction a double quartet of Kamehameha Alumnae will sing. All young people are welcome.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Salvation Army is arranging for a stranger's Christmas dinner.
Sam Kamakau was arrested last night for driving without a light.
Quo warranto proceedings may now be brought in the Oahu election contest.
George Kunkel will leave with the Sanford company for New Zealand next Wednesday.
The Pacific Lodge will hold a special meeting this evening with work in the third degree.
John Watt and Albert Horner have gone to Kona to investigate the condition of Kona Plantation.
Tom Quinn and A. Gonsalves were arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery.
Carl F. Brush, a civil engineer formerly located in Hilo, is now in China in charge of a surveying party.
The police raided a River street joint yesterday and locked up half a dozen natives who are held on a charge of vagrancy.
T. F. Lansing, immigration commissioner, will have to resign at the end of the month because of the lack of funds to carry on his work.
The regular meeting of the Hackmen's Union which was to have been held this evening has been postponed because the members wish to attend the county act meeting.

The meeting of the Honolulu Gun Club was postponed last evening because of the lack of a quorum. Reports of the officers show the club to be in a flourishing condition.
Komatsu, a Japanese, was arrested last evening on a charge of libel. He is alleged by one Y. Soma to have used slanderous words about him in a public gathering at a Japanese hotel.
Thos. H. Young, a Rapid Transit conductor, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Lindsey yesterday for cruelty to his three-year old daughter. Later in the afternoon the man's wife called on High Sheriff Brown for protection.
Allen & Robinson have brought suit against the Sanitary Steam Laundry for $1378.20. The money is alleged to be the balance due for coal furnished the defendant from October, 1901, to July, 1902.
Not only ladies are dressing dolls, but Judge Galbraith and Mr. Hayes of the Young Hotel, are busy at work spare moments fitting out a trousseau for a beautiful doll they are to present for the sale at Hawaiian Hotel next Monday.
The Hawaiian delegate to Congress, Prince Kalaniana'ole, was chatting with a friend, who said to him: "You people in congress don't seem to be accomplishing much in the way of legislation at this extra session." "No, we're not passing many laws," said "Prince Cupid," as he is called, "but look at the mileage some of us draw."—Chicago News.
The Sunday school children of St. Clement's church have very kindly been invited by the Y. M. C. A. Juniors to be their guests in Association hall, this evening at 7:30 o'clock to participate in the festivities of the Young People's Temperance rally, and it is earnestly hoped that all will attend. Unfortunately this invitation was not received by the Sunday school superintendent in time to announce it in Sunday school, so he takes this means of doing so. The meeting of boys which was called for this evening in the parish house will be cancelled.

The Healan Smoker.

The Healan Boat Club is preparing for a good time at tonight's smoker. The club has extended a public invitation to the members of the Myrtle Boat Club to attend and a pleasant program has been arranged. Songs, recitations, etc., will be given by A. R. Cunha, Lot Kaulukou, Jas. Dougherty, Geo. Kunkel, Allan Dunn and others. A feature of the evening will be a sparring match between Professor Woods and Jesse Woods.

A black cane, with owner's name on handle, has been lost. A suitable reward for its return will be paid at the Advertiser office.

DOLLS FREE TO-DAY

We are holding our "GIFT DAY SALE" TODAY. Every customer purchasing one dollar's worth of drug store goods will receive a pretty dressed doll free. Don't lose this opportunity of making the children happy. If you had to buy the dolls they would cost not less than $1. Several customers said they paid $1.50 for the same style of doll. The sale will be continued ALL DAY AND EVENING. We have 1000 dolls to give away. Everyone will be waited on quickly. Remember, this is the last doll day.
